

Career advancement in an innovative, high-demand industry

Master of Science in Information Technology

The MSIT degree program provides a holistic perspective into the field that ensures students develop the skills that drive 21st century business. The curriculum is a combination of technical and management knowledge, which implements strategies in security, infrastructure, and analytics to build a strong foundation for future information technology managers.

Program Highlights

- Project-based with STEM-infused curriculum
- Curriculum designed & integrated in all courses
- 8-week interactive live-online modality
- Courses infused with industry-relevant content
- Smaller, interactive classes for quality learning

Why an MSIT from Westcliff University?

- 2-year Completion: Graduate in 6 semesters
- Distinguished Faculty: Expert with real-world experiences
- Personalized Learning: Develop skills for career goals
- Mentorship: Guidance from faculty & program advisors
- Networking: Meet technical leaders & faculty world-wide

Regional Accreditation

Affordable
Tuition

No GMAT
or GRE Required

Live Online &
On-campus Classes

Dedicated Career
Services Team

Career-Oriented
Curriculum